Description

We are pleased to offer this five bedroom house in a great location, property consists of a large reception, kitchen/diner, first floor bathroom and ground floor shower room, private garden, five double bedrooms & one single. Fully furnished.

Seven Sisters has flourished in the last few years, it has now stamped itself as a highly desirable place to live in London, offering residents the benefits of being in such a vibrant area. If the vast choices of local shops and the quirky cafés/coffee shops, bars, music venues, leisure and art centres do not meet the desires then residents can take a short stroll to Markfield Park on the Lea Valley Canal, known to be a great day out, with places to dine and relax all through the day. Even offering great walks along the River Lee and the Tottenham Marshes.

Within proximity of Seven Sisters Underground Station, Overground Station, Bruce Grove Overground stations all offering fast access to central London, not forgetting ample bus routes providing
